

Code of Conduct for Young People

Waterford Hockey Club wants to provide the best possible environment for all young people involved in the sport. Young people deserve to be given enjoyable, safe sporting opportunities, free of abuse of any kind. These participants have rights, which must be respected, and responsibilities that they must accept. Young people should be encouraged to realise that they have responsibilities to treat other participants and sports leaders with fairness and respect.

Young players are entitled to:

- Be safe and to feel safe.
- Be listened to.
- Be believed.
- Have fun and enjoy hockey.
- Have a voice in relation to their activities within Hockey.
- Be treated with dignity, sensitivity and respect.
- Participate on an equitable and fair manner, irrespective of ability, disability, gender, religion, social class, sexual orientation etc.
- Experience competition at a level at which they feel comfortable.
- Make complaints and have them dealt with.
- Get help against bullies.
- Say No.
- Protect their own bodies.
- Confidentiality.

Young players should always:

- Treat Sports Leaders with respect, (including administrators, coaches, umpires, managers, children's officers, club officials, etc.).
- Look out for themselves and the welfare of others.
- Play fairly at all times, do their best.
- Come off the field of play if injured, sick or suspected of being concussed.
- Be organised and on time, tell someone if you are leaving a venue or competition.
- Respect team members, even when things go wrong.
- Respect opponents, be gracious in defeat.
- Abide by the rules set down by team managers when travelling to away events, representing the club, school, province or country, etc.
- Respect all means of transport, accommodation and facilities that may be provided and remember any damage or breakages will have to be paid for.
- Commit to the core values of the game, respect, inclusivity and integrity and behave in a manner that avoids bringing Hockey in any way into disrepute.
- Abide by the guidelines set out by the Government of Ireland, The HSE, Sport Ireland and Hockey Ireland regarding Covid-19.
- Talk to the Children's Officer, Shirley Moore, (087) 2307450, if they have any problems or concerns.

Young players should never:

- Cheat.
- Use violence or physical contact that is not allowed within the rules.
- Shout or argue with officials, team mates or opponents.
- Harm team members, opponents or their property.
- Bully or use bullying tactics to isolate another player or gain advantage.
- Take banned substances, alcohol, smoke or engage in sexual behaviour.
- Keep secrets, especially if they have caused or could cause harm.
- Tell lies about adults / young people.
- Spread rumours.
- Use language, play music or social media etc. with hateful content.
- Discriminate against other players on the basis of gender, disability, social class, religion, sexual orientation etc.
